

Hello All,

The Chili Cook-off came very quickly but it was wonderfully timed. With the typical air-conditioning in the building and the sullen weather outside, hot chili was a perfect comfort food to all those in attendance especially the drinks and crackers that accentuated the dishes. The classroom tables were brought together like a cozy café with lovely chats around the room.

The chili entries (in alphabetical order) were by :

- Mrs. Albritton
- Dr. Briihl
- Dr. Browne
- Dr. Reffel &
- Dr. Reiner

A vote was held and the results for this year's titles are

The Best Overall Chili- ..... Dr. Reffel
The Most Original Chili- ..... Dr. Briihl
The Hottest Chili- ..... Dr. Browne
And the 2nd Hottest Chili- ..... Mrs. Albritton

We thank them for showing off their culinary skills by presenting them with official certificates.

Club Matters

Guest Speaker Next Tuesday, we will have a guest speaker from the Haven, Amber Gurchiek, a crisis nurse.

Valentine's Day grams were assembled in a timely manner. It is still unclear if a table will be set up for sales outside of the Psychology building between tomorrow and Valentine's Day. On the chance that it will not be set up, please arrange to pick up your orders and deliver them to your buyers. Another e-mail will be set if this method changes.

Joining the Club is a procedure worth telling the newest Psychology Club Minutes Readers.

1. Go to Campus Connect at the following link:
