

VSU Graduate School Newsletter

September/October 2024

Need Help with a Writing Assignment?

The Academic Success Center (ASC) can help!

Contact the ASC at asc@valdosta.edu and find a graduate level PAL \(Peer Alliance Learning\) tutor who can assist.

Get Involved with AGS

(Association of Graduate Students)

As a graduate student, you have automatic membership. AGS offers:

1) Professional development opportunities; 2) Social events to meet other grad students; and 3) A community of support.

Upcoming meetings are:

September 26 at 4-5pm

October 24th at 4-5 pm

In Odum 1470 or Teams

Want to meet other VSU grad students?

Connect through GroupMe

Did You Know?

As a graduate student, you have access to professional development training through Infobase and Percipio. To access these training portals, log in to MyVSU, click the "View All" button to the right middle of the screen, and scroll for these options.

Infobase is an online training library with videos such as: APA Basics, Photoshop, Excel, Leadership Styles, Effective Listening Skills, and Acrobat Pro and much more.

Percipio allows you to engage in trainings and get certifications in a variety of areas such as Digital Marketing Institute, International Institute of Business Analysis, others.

Upcoming Events

- . Career Carnival.....September 24—Converse Square—11am-1pm
- . Career After Hours: Professional Networking Event.....
September 24—HSBA Lobby (North Campus) - 6:00-7:30 pm
- . All Majors Career FairSeptember 26—Student Union
Ballrooms—10:00 am—2:00 pm
- . Fall Break.....October 14-15

Graduate School Celebration!!

VSU Graduate School celebrated graduate student enrollment surpassing 3,000 student enrollment for the first time in VSU history! It is a celebration of YOU in your academic journey!

