Guiding Principles (DEPOSITS)

(Adapted from the Georgia Systemic Teacher Education Program Accomplished Teacher Framework)

Dispositions Principle: Productive dispositions positively affect learners, professional growth, and the learning environment.

Equity Principle: All learners deserve high expectations and support.

Process Principle: Learning is a lifelong process of development and growth.

Ownership Principle: Professionals are committed to and assume responsibility for the future of their disciplines.

Support Principle: Successful engagement in the process of learning requires collaboration among multiple partners.

Impact Principle: Effective practice yields evidence of learning.

Technology Principle: Technology facilitates teaching, learning, community-building, and resource acquisition.

Standards Principle: Evidence-based standards systematically guide professional preparation and development.

ALA's Core Competences of Librarianship

(Extracted from ALA's Core Competences of Librarianship 2009, available from <http://www.ala.org/educationcareers/sites/ala.org/educationcareers/files/content/careers/corecomp/corecompetences/finalcorecompstat09.pdf>)

1. Foundations of the Profession: The librarian understands the role of library and information professionals in the promotion of democratic principles and intellectual freedom (including freedom of expression, thought, and conscience), the legal framework within which libraries and information agencies operate; and the certification and/or licensure requirements of specialized areas of the profession.
2. Information Resources: The librarian understands the concepts and issues related to the lifecycle of recorded knowledge and information; the acquisition and disposition of resources; and the management and maintenance of various collections.
3. Organization of Recorded Knowledge and Information: The librarian understands and uses the principles involved in the organization, representation, and classification of recorded knowledge and information.

4. Technological Knowledge and Skills: The librarian understands and uses information, communication, assistive, and related technologies consistent with professional ethics and prevailing service norms and applications.
5. Reference and User Services: The librarian understands and uses the concepts, principles, and techniques of reference and user services to provide access to relevant and accurate recorded knowledge and information to individuals of all ages and groups.
6. Research: The librarian understands and uses the fundamentals of quantitative and qualitative research methods to evaluate and assess the actual and potential value of new research.
7. Professionalism: The librarian understands the necessity of continuing professional development of practitioners in libraries and other information agencies; the role of the library in the lifelong learning of patrons; and the application of learning theories, instructional methods, and achievement measures in libraries and other information agencies.
8. Administration and Management: The librarian understands the principles of planning and budgeting in libraries and other information agencies; the principles of effective personnel practices and human resource development; the assessment and evaluation of library services and their outcomes; and the issues relating to, and methods for, principled, transformational leadership.

MLIS Program Objectives (PO)

Graduates of the MLIS Program will:

- PO 1. Perform administrative, service, and technical functions of professional practice in libraries and information centers by demonstrating skills in information resources, reference and user services, administration and management, and organization of recorded knowledge and information. [ALA CORE COMPETENCES 1, 2, 3, 5, 8]
- PO 2. Use existing and emerging technologies to meet needs in libraries and information centers. [ALA CORE COMPETENCES 4]
- PO 3. Integrate relevant research to enhance their work in libraries and information centers. [ALA CORE COMPETENCES 6]
- PO 4. Demonstrate professionalism as librarians or information specialists. [ALA CORE COMPETENCES 7]

Course Description

Examination of multi-disciplinary information domains, addressing user behavior, and information needs, resources, and services unique to researchers in the humanity and social sciences.

Required textbooks / Resource Materials

There is no required textbook for this class. Students will be given reading materials throughout the class.

Course Objectives

Upon completion of this course, the student students will be able to meet these Student Learning Outcomes (SLOs):

SLO 1. To differentiate the information-seeking behaviors of researchers and practitioners in different disciplines (PO 1).

SLO 2. To utilize a working knowledge of the literature in each of the selected disciplines (PO 1).

SLO 3. To assess research needs across disciplines and demonstrate how information professionals may meet those needs (PO 1).

SLO 4. To employ a variety of print and electronic resources in a multi-subject research setting (PO 1).

SLO 5. To develop knowledge and skills for supporting multi-subject information services (PO 1).

Course Activities / Assignments / Requirements

The following list is a brief overview of the assignments used to measure learning outcomes included in this course. Complete instructions for each assignment along with grading criteria will be posted on the BlazeVIEW course site in advance of that assignment's due date.

Disciplinary Report – Due: 9/1/2020

(SLOs 1, 2, 3) 10 points

Select one discipline from the social sciences, and one discipline from the humanities to study them individually. Your disciplinary report should include the definitions and overviews of your selected disciplines, as well as key resources. You can include the resources listed by subject areas at the Odum Library website. You may also include other resources you identify from the web or from other sources.

Graded Discussion 1 – Due: 9/15/2020

(SLOs 1, 2, 3) 10 points

Assemble an annotated, illustrated list of primary sources that a historian would use 100 years from now to recreate something about your life. You may use Word or PowerPoint to create the file, then save it as a pdf file.

Graded Discussion 2 – Due: 9/29/2020

(SLOs 1, 2, 3) 10 points

From the readings, identify at least 10 aspects of social science and humanities research that librarians need to consider when serving scholars and students, and/or when developing a subject collection.

Resource Presentation I & II – Due: 10/20 and 11/3/2020

(SLO 4) 20 points

You will select and present a resource from the social sciences and humanities each to the class via two recorded presentation sessions.

Research Reference Project – Due: 11/17/2020

(SLOs 3, 4, 5) 30 points

This assignment requires students each select a research topic, interview one of their classmates on their selected topics, identify the classmate's information needs, and use relevant search methods and tools to identify needed research materials for each other.

Production of a Visual Resource Guide - Due: 12/1/2020

(SLOs 4 and 5) 20 points

Complete an illustrated resource guide on your selected subject.

Course Grade

Students can earn a maximum of 100 points in this course. Course grades will be awarded as follows:

- A: 90 – 100 points
- B: 80 – 89 points
- C: 70 – 79 points
- D: 60 – 69 points
- F: fewer than 60 points.

To be eligible for an A in this course, a student must complete every assignment.

Course Evaluation

Students in this course are expected to: 1) Read or view all assigned materials; 2) Participate in class activities; 3) Submit all projects on time and according to the format designated by the instructor; 4) Conduct all research and composition according to the VSU Academic Honesty Policy. See the COEHS Policy on Plagiarism at <http://www.valdosta.edu/colleges/education/deans-office/policy-statement-of-plagiarism.php> and the MLIS Guide to Ethical Conduct at <http://www.valdosta.edu/colleges/education/master-of-library-and-information-science/documents/GuidetoEthicalConductWebversion.pdf> for more information.

Attendance Policy

Course content is delivered asynchronously according to the course calendar. Students should follow the course calendar and participate via BlazeVIEW regularly. It is in your best interest to log into the BlazeVIEW course delivery system to check for announcements and e-mail messages related to the course.

Communication

A course Faculty Office discussion board will be available for the duration of the semester. Please post course-related questions that may be relevant to your classmates on the discussion board. You are expected to subscribe to the Faculty Office discussion board. If you have a personal question, please contact me via BlazeView course e-mail first. I will get back to you within 48 hours or sooner. If you would like to speak with the instructor, please schedule an appointment with me via email.

Submitting Written Assignments

All written work must be submitted as attachments to the assignment modules in the BlazeVIEW course website using required formats. The university's Information Technology department provides step-by-step guides on how to use VSU's e-mail system and other resources. The IT Help Desk is at <http://www.valdosta.edu/administration/it/helpdesk/>. Their telephone hotline is 229-245-4357.

Late Policy

All course work is due inside BlazeVIEW on the date and time indicated on the course calendar. Any exceptions without penalties must be negotiated in advance. Technological crises are not an acceptable excuse for submitting work late unless BlazeVIEW is down.

A grace period of 24 hours is offered without penalty (this does not include discussion boards – due to the interactive nature of these, the discussion posts must be completed according to the course schedule). After 24 hours 20% of the possible assignment grade will be deducted from the student's score for every additional 24 hours. The instructor WILL NOT accept work that is more than five (5) days late without prior consent. If you inform me of extenuating circumstances before the deadline, we can work out a solution for submitting a late assignment without penalty. Completely skipping an assignment is not acceptable in graduate school. To receive an A in this course requires completing every assignment.

If you have not submitted assignments up to the Midterm in the semester, you are not eligible for an Incomplete at the end of the semester. A grade of Incomplete is also not an option unless a non-academic situation interferes with completion of assignments after the option to withdraw without academic penalty passed (October 15). Informing your instructor that you plan to withdraw does not remove you from the course. You must request withdrawal through the office of the VSU Registrar.

Professionalism

The Department of Library and Information Studies expects that MLIS students will pursue their academic endeavors and conduct themselves in a professional and ethical manner. All work that a student presents to satisfy course requirements should represent his or her own efforts, including appropriate use and acknowledgement of external sources. The student will be timely and complete with assignments and other engagements. The student will communicate in a professional manner in both speech and writing. The student will maintain a professional attitude, being respectful to others and their viewpoints, and seek to maintain objectivity. The student will exercise an awareness of the pervasiveness of the online environment and strive to maintain a professional online presence.

Access Statement

Students with disabilities who are experiencing barriers in this course may contact the Access Office for assistance in determining and implementing reasonable accommodations. The Access Office is located in Farber Hall. The phone numbers are 229-245-2498 (V), 229-375-5871 (VP) and 229-219-1348 (TTY). For more information, please visit <http://www.valdosta.edu/access> or email: access@valdosta.edu.

Title IX Statement

Valdosta State University (VSU) is committed to creating a diverse and inclusive work and learning environment free from discrimination and harassment. VSU is dedicated to creating an environment where all campus community members feel valued, respected, and included. Valdosta State University prohibits discrimination on the basis of race, color, ethnicity, national origin, sex (including pregnancy status, sexual harassment and sexual violence), sexual orientation, gender identity, religion, age, national origin, disability, genetic information, or veteran status, in the University's programs and activities as required by applicable laws and regulations such as Title IX. The individual designated with responsibility for coordination of compliance efforts and receipt of inquiries concerning nondiscrimination policies is the University's Title IX Coordinator: Maggie Viverette, Director of the Office of Social Equity, titleix@valdosta.edu, 1208 N. Patterson St., Valdosta State University, Valdosta, Georgia 31608, 229-333-5463.

Student Opinion of Instruction

At the end of the term, all students will be expected to complete an online Student Opinion of Instruction survey (SOI) that will be available on BANNER. Students will receive an email notification through their VSU email address when the SOI is available (generally at least one week before the end of the term). SOI responses are anonymous, and instructors will be able to view only a summary of all responses two weeks after they have submitted final grades. Instructors will not be able to view individual responses or to access any of the responses until after final grade submission. Complete information about the SOIs, including how to access the survey and a timetable for this term is available at <https://www.valdosta.edu/academics/academic-affairs/sois/welcome.php>
