COURSE ACTIVITIES/ASSIGNMENTS/REQUIREMENTS

The following list is a brief overview of the activities included in this course. Complete instructions for each assignment along with grading criteria will be posted on the BlazeView course site in advance of that assignment's due date.

Assignments in Brief

What Makes a Special Library "Special"?

10 points

Study the assigned readings from the Assignment Calendar and post your reaction to Discussion Board 1. Check the BlazeVIEW content module for materials and guidelines.

Special Library Crawl

10 points

Select 10 special libraries from the list of links in the content module. Visit the websites. Follow the guidelines in the weekly content folder for completing the assignment.

Select Your Special Library Field Site

Required, not graded

Identify the special library where you would like to observe and interview the manager/librarian and at least one user. Post to

Book Review

20 points

Find a monograph or set of journal articles on your selected library or information center type and write a review. Post your review to your assigned Community of Practice Discussion board. Check the BlazeVIEW content module for materials and guidelines.

Review Your Field Site and Conduct Interviews

30 points

Contact your mentor – introduce yourself and determine how you want to communicate with each other. Create a report in which you include an overview of the administrative organization of the library or information center, describe responsibilities of the director of that facility, and conduct an interview with one prominent user of that site. Check the Assignment Calendar and BlazeVIEW discussion board for further materials and guidelines.

Self Development Project

20 points

You may either arrange to do a mini-fieldwork with your mentor or complete a term paper on some aspect of the special library type in which you are interested. Check the Assignment Calendar for further materials and guidelines.

Special Library Comparison

10 points

Partner with a classmate who chose a different environment – choose from one of the Community of Practice sites other than yours. Compare your special library or information center to that of your classmate. Check the Assignment Calendar for further materials and guidelines.

COURSE GRADES

Students can earn a maximum of 100 points in this course. Course grades will be awarded as follows:
100 – 90 points = A 89 – 80 points = B 79 – 70 points = C 69 – 60 points = D Below 60 points = F

Standards for MLIS core courses: No grade below a C will be credited toward a VSU graduate degree. Grades below C result in an accumulation of 1 to 2 deficiency points.

To be eligible to receive an A in this course requires completing every assignment.

An overall grade of zero can be assigned to an entire paper or project if the instructor determines that its contents, or parts of its contents, were completed by a second party or copied into a paper or project from a source without proper citing. Noncompliance with rules on appropriate use of resources will result in zero credit for those parts of the assignment affected. If you are unsure about the parameters of an assignment, ask for clarification.

Your final grade will be one of these letter grades:

Exceptionally exceeds minimum standards	A
Exceeds minimum standards	B
Meets minimum standards	C
Barely meets minimum standards	D
Fails to meet minimum standards	F

COURSE EVALUATION

As a student in this class, you are expected to: (1) read or view all assigned background materials; (2) participate in all online discussions and class follow-up activities; (3) check the BlazeVIEW course site regularly for messages and posted materials; (4) submit all projects on time and according to the format designated by the instructor, and (5) conduct your research and composition according to the rules of academic integrity. See the COEHS Policy on Plagiarism on page 6 and the MLIS Guide to Ethical Conduct at <http://www.valdosta.edu/colleges/education/master-of-library-and-information-science/documents/GuidetoEthicalConductWebversion.pdf>).

ATTENDANCE POLICY

This is a Web-delivered course with no required face-to-face meetings. The instructor may schedule real-time instruction using tools in BlazeView such as Chat or the Collaborate classroom. These lectures will be archived for students who cannot attend the live sessions.

COMMUNICATION

Please post course-related questions that may be relevant to the class on the Faculty Office discussion board. You are expected to read the discussion boards regularly. If you have a personal question please send it to the instructor via BlazeView course e-mail. If you would like to speak with the instructor in person or by telephone, please make contact during office hours.

SUBMITTING WRITTEN ASSIGNMENTS

All written work must be submitted as instructed on the BlazeView course website using Word formats (.doc or .docx suffixes only) or other formats designated by the instructor. The university's Information Technology (IT) department provides step-by-step guides on how to use VSU's e-mail system and other resources. The IT Help Desk is at <http://ww2.valdosta.edu/helpdesk/index.shtml>. Their telephone hotline is 229-245-4357. BlazeVIEW is powered by the Desire2Learn (D2L) course learning system. D2L provides 24/7 support 365 days a year. To contact D2L, go to <https://D2LHelp.view.usg.edu> or call the hotline at 855-772-0423.

LATE POLICY

Most graded assignments are due Wednesday, 11:59 pm. You have a one-day grace period to submit assignments for full credit – Thursday, 11:59 pm is the deadline. Assignments received after Tuesday, 11:59 pm, lose points. Completely skipping an assignment is not acceptable in graduate school. To be eligible to receive an A in this course requires completing every assignment and submitting within the specified deadlines.

A grade of Incomplete is not an option unless a non-academic situation interferes with completion of assignments after the option to withdraw without academic penalty expires (Noon, Thursday, March 9). A petition for an Incomplete must be submitted with documentation to the professor at the time an assignment is missed. Withdrawal from a course after March 9 requires a petition for hardship withdrawal. Follow-up regarding the hardship withdrawal process is the responsibility of the student, and questions on how to proceed must be directed to Dr. Marsha Walden (mwalden@valdosta.edu) in the Centralized Advising Center (229-245-4378).

PROFESSIONALISM

The Department of Library and Information Studies expects that MLIS students will pursue their academic endeavors and conduct themselves in a professional and ethical manner. All work that a student presents to satisfy course requirements should represent his or her own efforts, including appropriate use and acknowledgement of external sources. The student will be timely and complete with assignments and other engagements. The student will communicate in a professional manner in both speech and writing. The student will maintain a professional attitude, being respectful to others and their viewpoints, and seek to maintain objectivity. The student will exercise an awareness of the pervasiveness of the online environment and strive to maintain a professional online presence.

DEWAR COLLEGE OF EDUCATION & HUMAN SERVICES POLICY ON PLAGIARISM

<http://www.valdosta.edu/colleges/education/deans-office/policy-statement-of-plagiarism.php>

TITLE IX STATEMENT

Valdosta State University (VSU) is committed to creating a diverse and inclusive work and learning environment free from discrimination and harassment. VSU is dedicated to creating an environment where all campus community members feel valued, respected, and included. Valdosta State University prohibits discrimination on the basis of race, color, ethnicity, national origin, sex (including pregnancy status, sexual harassment and sexual violence), sexual orientation, gender identity, religion, age, national origin, disability, genetic information, or veteran status, in the University's programs and activities as required by applicable laws and regulations such as Title IX. The individual designated with responsibility for coordination of compliance efforts and receipt of inquiries concerning nondiscrimination policies is the University's Title IX Coordinator: Maggie Viverette, Director of the Office of Social Equity, titleix@valosta.edu, 1208 N. Patterson St., Valdosta State University, Valdosta, Georgia 31608, 229-333-5463.

ACCESSIBILITY STATEMENT

Valdosta State University is an equal opportunity educational institution. It is not the intent of the institution to discriminate against any applicant for admission or any student or employee of the institution based on the age, sex, race, religion, color, national origin, disability, or sexual orientation of the individual. It is the intent of the institution to comply with the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and subsequent Executive Orders as well as Title IX, Equal Pay Act of 1963, Vietnam Era Veterans Readjustment Assistance Act of 1974, Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967, and the Rehabilitation Act of 1973.

Students with disabilities who are experiencing barriers in this course may contact the Access Office for assistance in determining and implementing reasonable accommodations. The Access Office is located in Farber Hall. The phone numbers are 229-245-2498 (V), 229-375-5871 (VP) and 229-219-1348 (TTY). For more information, please visit <http://www.valdosta.edu/access> or email: access@valdosta.edu.

STUDENT OPINION OF INSTRUCTION

At the end of the term, all students will be expected to complete an online Student Opinion of Instruction survey (SOI) that will be available on BANNER. Students will receive an email notification through their VSU email address when the SOI is available (generally at least one week before the end of the term). SOI responses are anonymous, and instructors will be able to view only a summary of all responses two weeks after they have submitted final grades. While instructors will not be able to view individual responses or to access any of the responses until after final grade submission, they will be able to see which students have or have not completed their SOIs, and student compliance may be considered in the determination of the final course grade. These compliance and non-compliance reports will not be available once instructors are able to access the results. Complete information about the SOIs, including how to access the survey and a timetable for this term is available at <http://www.valdosta.edu/academic/OnlineSOIPilotProject.shtml>
