HOUSING AND RESIDENCE LIFE AT VSU

Living on campus is an integral part of the college experience at Valdosta State University. Housing and Residence Life (HRL) offers students more than just a place to live. We are committed to impacting the success of our students by creating living and learning experiences where students are inspired to become engaged leaders as they move beyond our communities and into the world.

The residential program is geared toward assisting students in achieving essential learning outcomes. Living in a residential environment is a unique and rich experience allowing students to live close to other students whose backgrounds, goals, values, and lifestyles often differ from their own. This may require self-exploration, openness to differences, participation in residential community activities, and respect for the rights of others. The reward is the development of skills, attitudes, and experiences that will continue to serve students after they depart from VSU.

The Office of Housing and Residence Life is staffed and structured to assist students in making personal adjustments and a smooth transition into our community. Programs and policies are designed to help students understand the responsibilities of membership in this community, build connections, engage with others, and enhance their personal development. The standards, policies, and procedures contained in this Handbook are designed to provide basic information about and foster understanding of our residential community. While we have attempted to make it as comprehensive as possible, inevitably some areas have not been included. Residents should contact HRL staff regarding any questions of interpretation or exclusion.

Only students at Valdosta State University registered for at least six (6) credit hours (3 credit hours in summer) shall be eligible to register for housing space. Any student who withdraws or is involuntarily removed from school shall move out within 24 hours. However, the student shall remain responsible for all financial obligations to the University.

Any admitted student with less than 30 earned credit hours must reside in VSU on-campus housing. A student with less than 30 hours of credit may be exempt from this policy if they:

- Have a permanent legal address within Lowndes County, Georgia at the time of admission into VSU or within 50 miles of the institution
 - Permanent legal address must be at the date of acceptance into VSU and be reflected on the admissions application
- Has custody of dependent children
- Have military obligations (Copy of deployment or transfer papers)
- Has a documented and approved medical disability with Student Disability Services
- Is getting married (Marriage Certificate required)

The housing contract is signed for a (1) one-year academic term. Students wishing to be released from the contract for the Spring semester of their contract must apply and be approved for a release before any assignments are canceled or charges are removed from their student account.

Mission

The Office of Housing and Residence Life is committed to providing our students with a safe, dynamic, residential experience that promotes Personal Growth, Diversity and Inclusion, Leadership Development, and Academic Success for every resident to actively engage their future as responsible global citizens.

Core Values

We recognize that learning is not solely limited to the classroom and that significant personal development also occurs outside of the classroom. We provide experiences for residents that are guided by intentional learning outcomes in the areas of:

- Academic Success
- Personal Growth
- Diversity and Inclusion
- Leadership Development

The Residential Community:

A Community of Similarities & Differences

As you get to know the other students in your community, you will probably become aware of several differences. Some of these will be immediately apparent as you meet students of different backgrounds: differences in socioeconomic status, ethnicity, race, political affiliation, religion, philosophy, lifestyle, physical ability, and interests. At the same time, there is much that you have in common. You will probably share many of the same concerns about both your academic and social college life. One of the most exciting and challenging learning experiences you will have in college is this experience of living with individuals who may be like you in some ways but different in others. Although the experience of living and learning with those different from yourself is not always easy, your success in building relationships within this community will serve you well long after your time in college.

While you are here, you can stay open to the diversity around you by sharing yourself with others and learning about them. Even if you do not share another's perspective, you will have an opportunity to gain a clearer understanding of the basis for your differences and will be ultimately more able to accept others for who they are and what they believe. To close yourself to people or ideas based on past information or experiences, or because you feel uncomfortable or awkward, robs you of one of the richest learning experiences available to you here. It is understandable that you will want, at times, to seek out and spend time with individuals who share a similar background, interests and/or lifestyle; but it is also desirable to stretch your personal boundaries and expand your knowledge and understanding by availing yourself of opportunities to interact with a variety of individuals.

What You Do Is Important

As a resident student you are expected to respect your fellow residents and should expect that you will be treated with respect and courtesy in return. Communication is critical in creating this community of mutual respect. Small misunderstandings and acts or comments which inadvertently cause hurt to someone else can continue to grow and escalate if they are not discussed so that there can be learning and understanding. Acts of bias are often the result of inexperience, lack of understanding or ignorance, and can often be prevented from recurring through gentle confrontation and honest communication.

Unfortunately, there are certainly some comments and acts that are intentionally meant to hurt and demean. Residents often choose to confront such behaviors on their own; however, they are always encouraged to bring acts of bias to the attention of HRL staff, all of whom are prepared to assist. Confronting a situation or mediating a conversation is often sufficient to prevent recurrences of biased comments or behaviors, but other measures are sometimes necessary. RL staff supports the belief that respect for individual and group differences is an appropriate expectation to place on resident students. When individuals act in a way that shows disregard for others' feelings, staff are trained and expected to intervene.

As a community member, YOU are encouraged to:

- » Be a positive example
- » Speak up against negative behavior
- » Offer support to victims of bias
- » Negotiate peaceful solutions to conflict
- » Inform staff of acts of bias and involve them in seeking a resolution
- » Give every member of the community the kind of respect that you want to receive from them

Opportunities for Growth and Involvement

The on-campus advantage. Living on campus offers a wealth of exciting and interesting opportunities right in your own residential community, but it's up to you to get involved. Why should you get involved? You will meet other students, get acquainted with faculty and staff, explore career possibilities, sharpen your academic skills, take part in area council, pick up a new skill, learn about a variety of issues and campus opportunities, and have a good time! Read on for more details...

A myriad of program possibilities. Your Hall Staff - Resident Assistant (RA), Residence Hall Director (RHD), and Housing Supervisor (HS) - will organize activities which might include floor dinners, intramural sports, movie nights, educational programs, wellness programs, and a variety of other programs. In addition, HRL organizes several other activities and programs designed to meet your personal and academic needs. These programs are designed to build on your classroom experience and contribute to your development.

Wherever you are in your college career or personal development - whether you are choosing a major or choosing a career, experiencing the excitement of a new relationship or the painful break-up of an old one, whether your interest is sports or music, literature or science, whether your concern is for housing security or the health of the planet - residential community programs can respond to both your needs and your interests. Don't hesitate to let your hall staff know your ideas!

Where are these programs held? Most activities and programs are held in floor or community lounges, although sometimes HRL will organize groups to attend out-of-hall programs elsewhere on campus. Watch for posters on the bulletin boards, emails, and/or announcements by your RAs for upcoming programs organized by your hall staff. If you would like to get more involved by offering a suggestion or helping to plan a program, the staff would be happy to have your participation.

RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF RESIDENTIAL STUDENTS

In the development of policies, HRL endorses and strives to incorporate the principles of the 1987 Association of College and University Housing Officers - International statement of student's rights and responsibilities. That statement is as follows:

"Residents in university housing facilities possess specific individual and group rights and responsibilities which must guide Housing personnel in making decisions concerning student welfare and behavior. The following statements define minimal expectations regarding these rights and responsibilities. Each resident has the right to engage in activities that are a part of campus life. However, these rights carry with them reciprocal responsibilities on the part of the individual to ensure these same rights for other residents. Individuals must be educated regarding these rights and responsibilities associated with community living."

The Housing Contract, Student Handbook, and other departmental documents are written and reviewed to be clear, concise, and stated in common and everyday language. They contain the specific policies and procedures of VSU that delineate rights and responsibilities as well as the student conduct system and administrative review and appeals process used to enforce them.

RESIDENTIAL COMMUNITY STAFF

Resident Student Staff

Resident Assistants (RAs) are selected student leaders who live in the residence halls to serve as counselors, advisors, communication links, and activity planners for an assigned section of the hall/building. The RA is also responsible for the general welfare and handling any issues of students living in the residence halls.

Resident Hall Directors (RHDs) are selected graduate students who live in the residence hall that they oversee. They serve as an information hub, coordinator, and staff manager. They also assist in event coordination and serve on committees dedicated to fostering community and staff development. These individuals have bachelor's degrees and HRL experience.

HEART (Housing Engagement Action Response Team) is the first line of call for emergencies, including building/room lockouts, emergency maintenance, and residential altercations. HEART members are located on the main campus and work beyond the designated housing office hours, typically manning the phone 24/7.

Professional Staff

Housing Supervisors (HS) are full-time live-in professionals who supervise the staff and manage the complete operation of an area of residence halls. Other responsibilities include staff training and supervision, community development, mentoring, advising student organizations, and facility management. These individuals have bachelor's or master's degrees, and HRL experience.

Associate Director of Housing (ADH) This is a full-time, professional, live-off position. Under the supervision of the Director of Housing & Residence Life, the Associate Director of Housing is primarily responsible for the daily functions and operations of the HRL Office. The ADH is responsible for housing assignments, billing and charging student accounts, customer service, and facilities.

Associate Director of Residence Education (ADRE) This is a full-time, professional, live-off position. Under the supervision of the Director of Housing & Residence Life, the Associate Director of Residence Education creates and oversees the curriculum model for all residential buildings. The ADRE coordinates all staff training and in-services and manages the budget for residence life programming on all residential campuses.

Director of Housing & Residence Life This is a full-time, professional, live-off position. Under the supervision of the Vice President of Students Affairs, the Director is primarily responsible for developing an environment that facilitates student growth academically, socially, and personally. They oversee the daily functions and operations of the Housing & Residence Life Department.

If residents need emergency assistance, there are a variety of sources available. A network of coverage exists for each individual residential community and on a campus-wide basis. In each community there is an on-call system which provides RA staff availability during evening and night-time hours. If a resident requires the assistance of a Professional Staff member and one is not available, University Police can assist 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, at 229-259-5555.

GENERAL RESIDENT INFORMATION

Break Housing

The University recognizes that some residents must remain on campus during periods of recess (i.e., Thanksgiving, Winter and Spring breaks, and summer sessions). Residence halls do not close for these recesses, but residents wishing to stay over the course of the break should contact their building's RHD or reach out to the main office to ensure they will have card-swipe access during these times. Please note that dining options are limited and sometimes unavailable during certain recesses. Information about breaks may be obtained prior to each recess by emailing the Office of Housing and Residence Life (housing@valdosta.edu), contacting your Residence Hall Director, or calling 229-333-5920.

Closing & Opening Schedule and Procedure

All residence halls, except for Centennial Hall and Brown Hall, are closed during the summer semester. as set forth in the Valdosta State University Academic Calendar. Prior to these closings, special security arrangements are implemented. Residents planning to remain in the hall until closing time are required to communicate that to the Residence Hall Director. Building security is changed to restrict access to the building during this period. Therefore, accessibility for those persons staying in the building may significantly change. Anyone failing to comply with security arrangements will be required to leave the building and may be charged accordingly through the student conduct system.

Common Area Damages

Damage to public/common areas will be the financial responsibility of all residents of the area (wing, floor, section, or hall) unless someone accepts individual responsibility. If no responsibility is accepted, common area charges may be assessed to all students living in the affected area.

Decoration of Residential Areas

Individual Rooms—Affixing items to walls using tape, staples, tacks, nails, etc. may result in damage to the walls and subsequent charges for repair. Therefore, attaching items to walls is done at the student's own risk. Pictures and posters may be hung on the room doors; tape, paint and marking pens should not be used on doors. Residents will be charged with cleaning or repairing both sides of their room door. Any alteration to the room that causes damage is the responsibility of its occupants. Any decoration which adds significantly to the combustibility of the room is prohibited. Please refer to the Fire Safety policy in this section for more specific regulations related to Furnishings and Decorations. Furniture, decorations, and other items which increase the flammability of residents' rooms or public areas may be prohibited at the discretion of HRL staff. Window curtains must be labeled as fire resistant.

Public Residential Areas—Decorations in the hall should not be excessive since they tend to increase the combustible load of the area in the event of a fire. Nothing should be attached to or hung from fire detectors, heat sensors, or ceilings. Ceiling lights may not be covered.

Holiday Decorations—Experience has shown that precautions must be taken when decorating for the holidays to assure personal safety and avoid damage to facilities. Here are some general guidelines to follow:

1. Use only fire-resistant materials. These are generally no more expensive than flammable materials and goods.
2. Use painters tape sparingly to prevent paint chipping from walls and woodwork.
3. Natural Christmas trees are prohibited in ALL residential facilities. Noncombustible artificial trees may be used in rooms and floor lounges.
4. Protect personal safety by refraining from blocking exits or decorating corridor lights and fire detectors.
5. Candles and other open flames are prohibited.
6. Use decorative lighting sparingly so that electrical consumption will not be increased.

Elevators

To ensure safety, all elevators are inspected routinely and tested annually. Elevators are for the sole purpose of riding from one floor to another. Misuse of elevators (holding the doors open, jumping, etc.) may cause damage to the elevator. Individuals found responsible for damage to the elevators may be held financially responsible.

Employment Opportunities

Numerous opportunities exist for student employment with the Office of HRL. The positions, pay scale and qualifications are listed below.

Resident Student Staff (RSS)

Title	(#) Positions Available	Compensation	Minimum Qualifications

Front Desks

Each residential community has a front desk adjacent to the main lobby, and some of these desks serve as area desks. The desk is the center of activity, where information and services are available daily. Front desks are staffed by RAs. These desk hours may fluctuate depending on the availability of RAs. If your front desk is not staffed, HEART is your next line of resource.

Residence Hall Area Desk Hours
Sunday – Saturday: 4pm to 12am

HVAC

The desired temperature in resident rooms is between 68 and 78 degrees. Since 68 degrees is not a particularly high temperature, it is important to allow the heating system to be as efficient as possible. The most important factor is to make sure that windows are tightly closed.

Residents who believe their room is cold should submit a work order to Facilities via CGL, maintenanceportal.cglcompanies.com. In response, a staff member will check the room temperature and see if the problem can be identified. If a quick solution is not possible, room relocation may be an option for the impacted students. Please remember when heat is first turned on after being off for the previous 6-8 months, a smell is expected, which is simply dust burning off the internal coils. Students are not permitted to cover any vents or block access to any HVAC closest in their unit.

Insuring Personal Property

Valdosta State University does not assume any liability or responsibility for loss or damage to personal property of residents except when negligence on the part of VSU is established. There are occasions when system failures result in loss or damage to a resident's personal property. Residents who find themselves in this position frequently believe that VSU should be responsible for restitution; however, VSU would not be responsible unless it was aware that the situation that caused the problem existed and did not resolve that situation, thereby resulting in loss or damage to personal property. Students believing their loss was the result of negligence should contact the Director of Housing for clarification.

All residents are encouraged to lock their doors and secure their belongings. They should also review their family insurance to determine whether they have appropriate coverage for their personal property while they are away at school and are encouraged to obtain appropriate insurance coverage.

Internet

- Wireless: All residential communities are part of the VSU-Wi-Fi Wireless Network.
- Wired: VSU no longer supports wired internet in the residence halls, but you can connect your smart devices to VSU-IoT and VSU-IoT5G (wireless).
- The per semester connection fee is included in your housing rate.
- Students are not permitted to illegally download any content via VSU affiliated Wi-Fi. Students found in violation will go through the conduct process.
- If residents experience problems with their connection, please reach out to the IT department by submitting a ticket (work order) for the problem.

Kitchens

Kitchens are available in all residence halls. Centennial Hall residents will have a full shared kitchen which comes equipped with a dishwasher, refrigerator, oven, and stovetop. Cooking utensils, including pots and pans, are provided by the residents of each suite.

Laundry Rooms

Each residence hall is equipped with laundry machines for use by residents. Students can utilize laundry machines via the Speed Queen app. This app is linked to your student account where you can upload laundry money. All residents, please contact the 1-800 number on your washing machine to set up a service call for it.

Mail

Each resident is assigned a mailbox. Students will have their own mailbox. The Mail Center is located in Hopper Hall, where residents staying on main campus may access their mailbox and retrieve packages. Centennial residents will have mailboxes located in Centennial East but will still need to retrieve packages from the Mail Center. Students are notified via email when they have a package but should check their mailboxes often for other mail.

Please note that the College is not responsible for cash or valuables sent by mail. Students who are leaving campus for the summer or are separating from VSU, graduating, or withdrawing should ensure they update information with family and websites like Amazon.

Please have your mail address in the following:

Student Name
1500 N Patterson St
Mailbox #
Valdosta, GA 31698

Maintenance Concerns

Students should request repairs and/or report maintenance and custodial concerns by submitting an online service request on maintenanceportal.cglcompanies.com . Keys cannot be requested by residents and must go through the Residence Hall Director of each building or the main office. Although we strive to deal with each report effectively, errors do occur. Residents should persist in reporting problems until they are resolved, and maintenance emergencies should be reported to HEART.

Medical Accommodation Housing Requests

If requesting housing accommodations due to a disability (including medical conditions), the request needs to be reviewed and approved by VSU's Access Office for Students with Disabilities. Students who are planning on applying for an accommodation should select the option in the Housing Portal at the time of application. To allow sufficient review time, supporting documentation must be received at least two months before the anticipated occupancy. If the request is approved, the Access Office will be notifying Housing of the reasonable accommodation(s) if necessary. Please note that the Access Office can only notify Housing of the reasonable accommodation approved and is unable to recommend a specific residence hall or room.

Posting and Distributing Promotional Material in Residence Halls

Each residence hall has posting space on resident floors and in the main lobby area. Typically, floor bulletin boards are used to advertise in-hall/floor activities, registered student organizations' activities and official announcements from VSU departments.

Procedure to Post

Organizations from outside Housing and Residence Life may request approval for posting promotional materials in residential facilities by emailing the Office of HRL at housing@valdosta.edu. Posting of material is the sole discretion of HRL staff.

Note: For the purposes of the posting policy, any area outside of an individual student room, including the side of the door facing the corridor, is considered public space.

1. Postings should be no larger than 11" x 17".
2. All information on postings must conform with University Policies and be consistent with the programmatic objectives of HRL.
3. Posting will be done by building staff assigned that responsibility, not the representatives of the posting organization.
4. Postings will be displayed as soon as reasonable, removed, and destroyed after the event date.

Recovered and Abandoned Property

Periodically, lost personal property is found in the residence halls. Such items usually fall into two categories: owner-identified and owner-unidentified. During periods when halls are occupied and during periods of recess, found items should be turned in at the hall front desk. If no owner is identified during a reasonable period (2-4 weeks), the item will be transferred to Campus Police and/or donated.

At the end of the Spring or Fall semester, if the resident is vacating the hall, items found for which ownership can be determined (such as labeled personal property) should be given to the appropriate staff member for holding. When vacating, we ask that you take all of your belongings; in the case items are left behind, you will be charged a fee for the gathering of these items. The owner will be notified that the property has been found and asked to advise regarding disposition.

Abandoned Property is any item left behind when a resident has separated from the University. Students have 48 hours to remove their belongings from their room, return their key, and check out with a staff member. If items are left behind, they are considered abandoned property and will be dealt with at the discretion of Housing and Residence Life.

Refrigerators

Compact refrigerators that clearly conform to proper electrical and chemical standards, operate on no more than 2.0 amps, have a capacity not exceeding 4.4 cubic feet and have outside dimensions that do not exceed 48 inches, are permitted. Each room is permitted to have one refrigerator. Suite-Style halls are allowed 2 per dorm, meaning one in each side. Traditional halls are allowed 1; all must be UL/ETL-approved.

Removal of Personal Belongings

All residents must vacate the residential community and remove all personal belongings from the premises in accordance with the release or expiration of the Housing Contract. If personal belongings are not removed from the premises, the resident, by signing the Housing Contract, authorizes and agrees to pay a per day room rental charge to VSU for each day that the room was not available for reassignment by the College. Further, the resident agrees to pay such fees as are assessed by VSU for the labor involved in the removal of the resident's personal belongings, and VSU shall not be responsible for any resulting loss or damage to those belongings abandoned by the resident.

Residence Hall Room Change

Students who wish to move to a different room and/or residence hall can request a room change; students can do so by submitting their request during room change period, which typically occurs a few weeks into each semester. Requests can be made through the StarRez Housing Portal after the room change period and may be approved depending on the circumstances. Please note that submitting a room change request does not guarantee that the student will have the opportunity to change rooms.

Residential Community Security

General Information

All exterior doors to residence halls are locked 24 hours per day, seven days per week. Students must use their OneCard ID in order to gain access to their assigned residence hall.

Deliveries such as food, flowers, etc., will require the person placing the order to be available to meet them at the entrance of the building by giving the delivery person a phone number at which you can be reached. If the previous method will not work, alternate arrangements must be made by the orderer.

Policies and Procedures

To assure reasonable security, the following policies and procedures are in place:

1. Lost keys are to be reported to the Residence Hall Director or a resident assistant by the residents of the room as soon as possible after the loss is detected. Lost keys are replaced by re-keying the lock and making new keys for all residents affected. A charge for the costs involved is assessed to the individual who lost the key(s).
2. All residence halls front desks are open each day to assist residents. When the desk is not open, students can call HEART for their building or come to the main office for assistance if it is during business hours.

3. Non-residents of the building are considered guests and must be accompanied by a resident to be in the building.

Residential Communities

All residence hall exterior doors are locked 24 hours per day, seven days per week. Only students assigned to a specific residence hall and their registered guests will have access to the residence halls

- Each building's residents will be able to enter their residence hall at designated entrances by use of their OneCard card 24 hours per day when college is in session.
- Selected residence hall doors are available to residents of the building for entrance during specific times. Please consult with your hall staff.
- Registered guests must enter via the main entrance to the building.

Respect for Staff

Members of the Housing and Residence Life staff are to perform their duties free of harassment, intimidation, or menacing behavior from those with whom they work. When a staff member is engaged in the performance of authorized duties, the following behavior by residents or their guests is strictly prohibited. The following violations may result in disciplinary action including arrest, removal from residence, and suspension:

1. Verbal abuse (including, but not limited to ethnic, sexist, or racial slurs).
2. Physical intimidation or menacing behavior directed at the staff member.
3. Display of visual materials that demean or humiliate a staff member.
4. Interference with a staff member engaged in the performance of assigned duties.
5. Failure to comply with a reasonable request from a staff member.
6. Failure to respond to the questions or instructions (including opening of a room door) of a staff member in the performance of their assigned duties.
7. Failure to acknowledge and comply with a staff member's request to enter a resident's room when that staff announces that they are acting in the performance of their assigned duties.

Room Damages

The baseline condition of the room at the time of occupancy is established by completing a Room Condition Report (RCR). You will receive this report on the day of your move-in and have 48 hours after checking in to accept the report or make changes. This process is done by a Resident Student Staff member before you move in, and it is your responsibility to document any damages or maintenance concerns within the allotted 48 hours. Maintenance concerns that can be resolved on the day of move-in should be directed to the maintenance staff assisting the hall for that day. Residents are financially responsible for any damage to facilities and furnishings that exceed normal wear and tear that are not listed on the RCR or were not reported on the day of move-in. Upon release from the Housing Contract or when a resident changes from one room to another, an inspection must occur.

At the time of inspection, a resident assistant will identify any damage and discuss with the residents of the living unit the assignment of responsibility. RAs do not make decisions about the cost of damages, that responsibility lies with the Residence Hall Director for each building. The resident(s) will be advised of the charge or estimate at the time of checkout. If we cannot determine who is responsible for the damage, the cost of the damage will be split equally among occupants of the room. The resident(s) will receive a bill of damage(s) and an explanation of their right of appeal electronically to their VSU email address. Inspection for residential community damages which will be assessed to resident students are conducted, when possible, before residents vacate the residential community. See the room damages and common area damages sections for more information.

Residents who do not check out properly with a staff member will be given an Improper Check out Fine of $100. This will also result in a resident waiving their ability to appeal any damage charges they may be assessed.

Residents can check out by contacting a member of their hall staff at any time and turning in their keys to them. Any damages that are found upon inspection will be assessed after the resident has vacated. However, if this option is chosen, the resident will waive their right to appeal any damage charges that have been assessed.

Payment of damage charges is due within 30 days of billing. Once damage charges have been collected, every effort is made to repair the damage as quickly as possible. Exceptions to this would be due to shortages of personnel or supplies, or instances when only partial payments were assessed and collected.

Room Entry

Requests for entry into resident's rooms is infrequent and would occur only under the following circumstances:

- When residents are present, staff members will knock on the door, announce themselves and request entry just to visit or to accomplish some administrative tasks such as a repair, survey, etc.
- Periodically to inspect rooms (not personal possessions, desk drawers, etc.) to determine their condition for health and safety purposes. In this case, notice is given to residents at least 7 business days in advance of the inspection. Typically, in this situation rooms will be entered whether the occupants are present. As part of the vacation closing procedure, staff do check closets to be sure the room is empty.
- VSU reserves the right to enter, repair, inventory, inspect, or search, and students consent to such entry or entries into any student space, including health and safety inspections of residence hall rooms. This includes Residence Life staff, Campus Police Department officers, Facilities staff, and any other University employees or contractors who have a legitimate need to enter the space.
- To halt the continuation of an activity where imminent danger to life, safety, health, or property is reasonably feared and/or appears to be in violation of federal, state, or local laws or University policy. University staff members will knock, announce themselves, and request entry. If there is no response or the request for entry is denied, VSU staff members will obtain entry to the room to resolve the situation. Occasionally Campus Police will be asked to participate in this response.
- To affect emergency repairs or deal with an emergency and maintain building security during break periods, VSU staff may enter a room without the occupants' knowledge.

Roommates

Living with a new roommate can be an excellent experience; but, as in any relationship, conflict is a possibility. Two important things each roommate can do to establish respect and a positive relationship are:

1. Get to know each other
2. Communicate

It is important for all residents to understand that the residence hall room is each roommate's "home." Each student should be comfortable living in the room/suite/apartment. If one or all residents feel that they are communicating but still have not resolved any issues, they are to contact their hall staff. Hall staff members are trained in mediation and conflict resolution. Most often, residents will find that there is a simple solution and simply a trained, neutral party can help roommates resolve issues. If additional mediation or intervention is needed, the RHD of the building will work with the students to find resolution.

A room change may seem like an easy way out but will not solve the issues each roommate may face in sharing living space, thus resulting in recurring problems with future roommates. Through education and encouragement, solutions to these conflicts can often be found and the need for a room change eliminated. However, if a sincere effort has been made and a resolution has not been obtained, a room change could be possible upon availability and professional staff approval.

Room Rates, Billing, & Adjustments

Room Rates

A student's room rate is based on their specific residence hall, rates for each building are different based on which hall and room style the student selects. Rates are approved by the University System of Georgia on a yearly basis and are typically made available in late April for the following Fall semester. Because of this, students may see an adjustment on their student account.

Billing Procedures & Housing Payment Adjustments

After a student registers for classes, students are billed the entire rate for their assigned residence hall each semester

Housing payment/room rental adjustments are based on the date:

- personal belongings are removed from the room/suite/apartment,
- assigned keys are returned,
- the room/suite/apartment is inspected by a member of the HRL staff,
- debts related to room rental incurred by the resident have been paid in full to VSU, and
- the resident officially checks out of the room/suite/apartment.

Withdrawal from University

Residents withdrawing from VSU must submit a request for a housing release to the Office of Housing and Residence Life as soon as possible. The request must be made in writing (either via email, regular mail, fax, or submitting in person). It must be signed by the student and must include the student's identification number and the date on which the withdrawal becomes effective.

Residents who withdraw from the University during the academic semester must vacate the residential facility and remove all personal belongings from the premises no later than 48 hours after approval.

In the event a resident withdraws or is academically disqualified from the University after the fall semester and before the beginning of the spring semester, the resident must officially request to be released from their housing contract, remove all personal belongings from their assigned room and officially check-out of the residential community by the deadline given; such deadline will likely be before the date of re-opening of the residential facilities for the spring semester, and will be included in all communications to the student.

Release from Housing Contract

All requests for release from the Housing Contract must be submitted through the online Release of Contract Form, with documented proof of the circumstances related to the release request. If these circumstances change after the student is released from the Housing Contract, the release will become invalid, and the student will again be obligated to the terms of the Housing Contract. Students may not request release from the Contract based on disciplinary action.

Typical Releases

A student may request release from the Housing Contract with supporting documentation for one of the following reasons:

1. Graduation from VSU, or
2. Involvement in University-sponsored academic programs such as student teaching, study abroad, or internship, that make it impossible for Student to commute from any VSU campus, or
3. Approved medical, psychological, or disability need that cannot be accommodated on-campus, or
4. Voluntary official withdrawal or approved leave of absence from VSU, or
5. Active military duty.

Under these circumstances, if the request is made prior to July 1st, the student will be charged a $250 cancellation fee. If the request is made July 1st or after, the student will be charged a $500 cancellation fee. The student will also be liable for associated housing based on the effective date of approved release if approved for release after move-in.

These requests for release will be acted upon by HRL following consultation with appropriate offices and verification of information provided. Decisions are made solely based on the documentation submitted to the appropriate offices and whether the justification for release meets acceptable circumstances.

Other Releases

Students will not be released from their contract unless they can set forth one of the circumstances described above. However, there may be other opportunities for release based on specific needs. Approval of releases is within the sole discretion of the Director of Housing and Residence Life. If approved, the student will be liable for housing and dining costs according to the schedule below:

Fee and Liability for Other Releases

Request for Cancellation of Contract	Refund Amount	Charges to Student Account
Prior to July 1st	$150 housing deposit	$250
July 1 st or after	$150 housing deposit	$500

Check-in dates can be found on the HRL website.

All adjustments to student accounts will be based on the effective date of vacancy, prorated by the day.

Appeals

If a request for release is denied, the student may submit a written final appeal. The appeal and all supporting documentation must be submitted by email to housingrfc@valdosta.edu. A student whose request for release is denied is responsible for the cost of the assigned space and the applicable dining charge through the remainder of the academic year, even if they choose to vacate the assigned room and live elsewhere.

Request for Release Ineligibility

If a student is suspended from on-campus housing and/or VSU, they remain bound by the Housing Contract and will be responsible for the full cost of their housing for the rest of the semester in which disciplinary action is finalized. If this action is taken after the close of the fall semester, but before the beginning of the spring semester, the student will not be billed the $500 release fee for the Spring semester if they complete the approved move-out process.

Official Release from Occupancy

All students that are approved for release from their Housing Contract must:

- Remove all personal property from the room/suite/apartment.
- Have the room/suite/apartment inspected by a HRL staff member, including completion of the Room/Suite/Apartment Inventory and Condition Record, or do the self-checkout form
- Turn in any assigned keys at the time of check-out.
- Complete all other official check-out procedures.
- Failure to do so by the stated deadline may result in:
 - Continued room rental charges for the period of elapsed time until such action is completed by the resident, and/or
 - Financial charges for the cost of the labor and materials used to pack and temporarily store abandoned personal property, and/or
 - Disposal of personal property not reclaimed after temporary storage.

Room Selection and Assignments

All students who apply for housing should select a room as part of the application process. Returning students participate in a room selection process early in the spring semester of each year and are generally allowed to reclaim their current room or select a new room depending upon the availability of accommodations. Students wishing to live on campus for the upcoming year must complete all steps of the room selection process on time as prescribed to guarantee the most options. Since the Housing Contract is for the entire academic year, students who have met the housing requirement and whose priority is to live off-campus SHOULD NOT participate in the room selection process. They may still have the option of living on campus if they do not find suitable off-campus housing; however, they will not have the on-campus choices they would have had if they had participated in the spring room selection process. Students are encouraged to ask their Residence Hall Director or call the main office for more information about room selection and assignments.

Consolidation

Valdosta State University reserves the right to reassign students for the purpose of consolidation and to schedule unoccupied rooms for guests' usage at any time. Where there is a vacant space, it must be maintained in a manner by the occupant(s) that will allow another person to move in immediately. Failure to do so will result in a $100 double occupancy charge. The University reserves the right to make temporary assignments and to assign or reassign accommodations at its discretion.

Service and Support Animals (SA) in University Housing

The Office of Housing and Residence Life prohibits residents, and their guests, from bringing pets into the residence halls at any time. Freshwater, non-flesh-eating fish in aquariums up to 5 gallons are permitted.

- Emotional Support Animals (ESAs) are permitted on a case-by-case basis and need approval from the Director of Accessibility Services and the Office of Housing and Residence Life before the animal can be brought into the residence hall. Additional documentation may be required from Housing and Residence Life before the animal can be permitted in the residence halls as well.

Student Records

Housing and Residence Life maintains a variety of records pertaining to residents. Included in this category are contracts, administration documents, and occupancy records. These records are for University use and are available only to appropriate University offices, except as in compliance with a proper court order. These documents may be reviewed only by the student referenced and only after the student confirms their identity via University identification card or photo DMV license. Copies may be made and given to the student referenced upon request. The preferred request is in person; however, if an in-person request is not possible, a written request from the student can be accepted. Telephone requests will not be honored.

Vending Machines

Each year, Auxiliary Services contracts with a private vendor to provide vending machines for the campus, including residential communities. Each residential community is equipped with a variety of vending machines, typically including a soda machine(s) and snack vending machine(s). Any problems, including refund requests, should be reported to Auxiliary Services.

RULES GOVERNING RESIDENTIAL FACILITIES

Alcohol & Drug-Free Campus Policy

The residential alcohol policy is governed by the Student Code of Conduct. VSU on-campus community (faculty, staff, and students) is part of a larger community and, as such, is not only governed by its own regulations but by University policies and state law. Valdosta State University prohibits:

- the use or possession of alcohol by anyone in the on-campus community or on the premises that is under the age of 21;
- the transport and/or consumption of alcohol in open containers in any public area including any property that surrounds an apartment and is considered VSU property;
- the manufacture or selling of alcohol;
- public intoxication;
- common containers of alcohol (kegs, party balls, trash cans, funnels, beer hats, etc.);
- students' presence where an alcohol violation is occurring, regardless of whether the resident/guest is using or possessing alcohol;

- In the case that one resident is 21+ and another is under the age of 21, alcohol must be kept in the room of the 21+ resident. Alcohol in shared spaces of a room/suite/apartment is prohibited if any resident of the space is under the age of 21.

Drugs Possession/ Use

Valdosta State University prohibits the possession, use, or distribution of drugs and alcohol by students and employees on the Valdosta State University campus or as any part of Valdosta State University's activities, whether on or off campus. Valdosta State University is committed to recognizing, upholding, and enforcing the laws of the State of Georgia. Violation of those state laws, incorporated into the Valdosta State University's Student Code of Conduct regarding Drugs and Alcohol, will not be condoned on the campus.

No person shall possess, consume, manufacture, dispense, be in the presence of or under the influence of illegal drugs, or engage in improper self-medication while on university property or conducting University business. No person shall possess or utilize paraphernalia explicitly for drugs use. VSU prohibits:

- selling, possessing or using any substance currently classified as a dangerous drug by the Georgia Controlled Substance Act or classified as illegal by state or federal law;
- possession of drugs that may be used to incapacitate other individuals;
- possession and/or use of drug paraphernalia, including but not limited to any form of bong or smoking device, such as a hookah, even if not used or if used for tobacco products;
- students' presence where a drug-related violation is occurring, regardless of whether the resident/guest is using or possessing drugs.

Appliances

Computers, stereos, televisions, radios, etc. are allowed. Refrigerators (maximum 4.4 cubic feet and 1.5 amps) and microwaves (maximum 1000-watt) are permitted in rooms. Each room is limited to one of these per room. Full-size refrigerators, ovens, and stoves are furnished in Centennial Hall. All electrical appliances must be plugged directly into wall outlets. Extension cords are not allowed. Surge protectors are permitted.

Air fryers (under 1200 watts or 10 amps) are only allowed in Centennial Hall.

Appliances such as Fry Daddies, anything with an open or exposed heating element (such as grills, George Foremans, tabletop grills, toasters, toaster ovens, etc.), Griddles, or Skillets are not permitted in any of the residence halls, including Centennial Hall. However, we do offer a grill available to residents in the Centennial Courtyard.

For a full list of Prohibited Items, please check the Residence Life webpage here <https://www.valdosta.edu/housing/bring-or-not-to-bring.php>

Care of Facilities

Residents must use the living facilities in a quiet, peaceful, and lawful manner for residential purposes only. Residents, invited guests, or any member of the resident's household shall not act in any manner that disturbs other residents' reasonable expectation of a quiet and peaceful environment, such as acts that are objectionable or obscene, dangerous, or otherwise disruptive.

Alterations to Residence Hall Facility

No changes will be made in the residence hall or housing space by residents. This includes, but is not limited to shelves, partitions, lofts, window coverings, wallpaper, painting, plumbing, heating, other structural changes or alterations to furniture, or the removal of University furniture and its replacement with items owned by the resident. No person shall, without proper authorization, remove any property from its assigned place in a University facility.

No person shall damage, deface, or destroy University property. This includes marking or writing on room/apartment/suite doors. Residents should avoid using nails or sticky substances on sheetrock and wood. Use of thumbtacks and push pins are permitted to hang items on sheetrock walls. Damage done by nails or other fixatives will result in a per-item charge to the student's account.

Computers and Wi-Fi

Residents can bring personal computers, laptops, tablets, etc. to the residence hall, as VSU residential facilities are complete with Wi-Fi in the residence halls. No Ethernet Ports are accessible, as there is a router in each living area/suite in all residence halls. Your computer or other device will need to be Wi-Fi compatible. Personal wireless (Wi-Fi) routers are not allowed in residence halls at VSU. Students found in possession of these routers will be asked to take the device home. If the router is found in use a second time, it will be confiscated. Streaming Devices are allowed. When residents move into their residence hall, they must then register their device with the IOT through the IT department. Instructions for doing so can be found on the IT website.

Damages to Residence Hall Facilities

Residents will be held responsible for all damage to their room, its furniture, appliances, and equipment, and for maintaining the space in a safe and sanitary manner. Residents are held responsible for making an appointment with HRL staff to have the room/apartment/suite inspected prior to the resident's departure. If the room or common areas are not surrendered in a clean and orderly condition, the residents will be charged for the expense of any additional cleaning.

Residents are jointly responsible for the cost of replacement or repair of any breakage or damage in the common areas within their assigned housing unit. Charges will be equally assessed on each member of the assigned room, hall, or apartment if the person responsible remains anonymous (collective liability). Residents may also be assessed the expense of the repair or replacement of any property in public areas judged damaged by residents or their guests in each room. Damages to a given residence hall that cannot be attributed to an individual student will also be assessed, and these costs will be shared by all residents of that residence hall.

Residents are responsible for the housing space's condition and all furnishings assigned to them and shall reimburse the University for all damages to or loss of these furnishings. Residents are responsible for maintaining the cleanliness of their rooms. Charges for damages and/or cleaning shall be assessed to the student's account.

Disruptive Behavior

Disruptive behavior including:

1. harassment or creating a hostile environment through discrimination, intimidation, ridicule, or insult toward any person;
2. acts of bias targeted toward a person or group;
3. physical abuse, assault and/or battery;
4. threats toward or intimidation of any person, or intentionally or recklessly causing harm or reasonable apprehension of harm;
5. creation of a condition or situation that endangers mental or physical health;
6. conduct which inhibits the peace or safety of members of the University community;
7. conduct related to the use, possession, or distribution of alcohol or other drugs are unacceptable and subject to disciplinary action.

Disorderly Conduct

Behavior which, in Valdosta State University's sole discretion, has a negative impact on the living and learning environment of the residence halls, will be subject to student conduct procedures that could include immediate revocation of the privilege to live in a residence hall. Disruptive behavior (i.e., physical abuse, fighting, malicious destruction of property, uncontrolled horseplay, water fights, sports in the breezeways, pranks, other rough play, etc.) that could endanger the health and safety of staff, residents, or guests will not be tolerated.

Students are prohibited from playing sports or rough housing in the halls as this may disrupt the living/learning environment. Hall sports include tossing, bouncing, or kicking a ball or frisbee, roller blading, biking, scooter, nerf guns, water guns, or water balloons. ***

Fire Safety

Residential Fire Safety is a serious issue due to the population density and the potential for injury and loss that could occur from a fire. To reduce fire hazards and comply with state fire codes, Valdosta State University has established the following policies and procedures. Residents are expected to know and follow these procedures. Violators may face disciplinary action and/or arrest.

A. Fire Drills and Evacuation

Each residential community will conduct periodic fire drills to familiarize students and staff with the proper evacuation procedures and escape routes. Evacuation procedures and routes are posted throughout the buildings. All students should familiarize themselves with the evacuation procedures, know the location of all the exits in their living area, and how to reach them in case they need to evacuate in total darkness. When the alarm sounds, all persons in the building must exit the building immediately and remain outside until HRL staff members tell them it is permissible to return. There is a designated alternative shelter location for each residential community; in instances of inclement weather and/or prolonged evacuation, residents will be directed to the appropriate shelter facility. Failure to evacuate a building during a fire alarm is a violation of HRL procedures and can result in disciplinary action.

B. Fire Detection/Fighting Equipment

Each residential facility is equipped with heat and smoke sensors, fire extinguishers and fire alarm pull boxes. Residents should familiarize themselves with this equipment's location upon moving into a residential community. Tampering with any fire protection equipment is prohibited. Intentional activation of alarm systems for any reason other than reporting a fire is strictly prohibited and will result in a fine of the identified student. Routine fire alarm testing will occur over the course of the semester.

C. Fire Evacuation Procedures

To ensure the safety of all residents and visitors of the residential community, the following guidelines must be followed. When an alarm is sounded, all residents and visitors should:

1. Immediately put on hard-soled shoes and clothing appropriate to weather conditions, as evacuation may be for a long time. Take a towel to cover your face. This will aid breathing if there is smoke.
2. Close all windows.
3. Check the room door before opening to see if it is hot. Smell for smoke. If the door is hot or you smell smoke, it should not be opened. Seal the cracks at the bottom and sides of the door with a towel or clothing. If trapped, call University Police, give the hall and room number and then go to the window to attract the attention of the fire department.

4. If there is no sign of prohibitive heat or smoke, leave the hall by the nearest exit, using the stairwells. Do not use elevators.
5. Vacate the building by the shortest, safest route, and gather at the designated area (at least 100 feet from the building). Follow instructions given by HRL staff, Campus Police, Fire Marshal, and Fire Department Personnel. Remain outside until directed to reenter or proceed to designated alternative shelter.
6. Students unable to use the stairs should call University Police with their name and location for assistance during a fire evacuation.

Hall	Designated Area for Evacuation
Brown	Odum Library Pedestrian Area
Georgia	Camelia Trail
Hopper	Palms Quad by LA
Lowndes	Brown Hall Quad
Patterson	Grass area by creek
Reade	Retirement walkway between Bailey and Nevins
Centennial	Student Recreation Center Parking Lot

D. Furnishings, Decorations, and Other Prohibited Items

Furniture, decorations, and other items which increase the flammability of residents' rooms or public areas may be prohibited at the discretion of HRL staff. Excessive amounts of combustible decorations are particularly dangerous because they can promote rapid spread of flames in the event of a fire. Suspending combustible materials, such as tapestries, curtains, flags, fishnets, etc., is strictly prohibited. It is the resident's responsibility to ensure all window curtains and personal furniture meet NFPA 701 standard. In common areas (i.e., bathrooms, hallways, and lounges) similar fire code regulations exist.

Possession and/or ignition of combustible materials is prohibited. Examples include, but are not limited to, candles, incense, sterno, toaster ovens, hoverboards and certain types of oil-burning lamps.

E. Electrical Load

The following guidelines have been developed to prevent the overloading of electrical circuits which can create a life-threatening hazard.

1. The use of electrical extension cords is strictly PROHIBITED.
2. Circuit-breaker-protected multi-outlet power strips that are Underwriter's Laboratory (UL/ETL-approved) can be used. These must be plugged directly into a wall receptacle and may not be joined together to extend their reach. All cords must be UL/ETL-approved and recommended for intended use, in perfect condition, and either 12 or 14 gauge.
 - a. If the appliance using the power strip requires grounding (three-pronged plug), only grounded power strips shall be used.
 - b. Cords may not pass through wall openings, doorways, partitions, or under rugs
 - c. Cords may not be spliced, tied in knots, wrapped around metal fixtures, or draped over pipes.
 - d. "Daisy chaining" (connecting one or more of these power strips to each other) is not permitted.
3. Heavy load appliances, such as refrigerators and blow dryers, must be plugged directly into permanent outlets by the cord attached to the appliance.
4. Multiple outlet adapters (exclusive of power strips permitted in 2. above) are not permitted.

F. Fire Safety Inspections

HRL staff inspects all residential living units (including bedrooms) at least two times each semester. Residents are advised of any fire safety and health problems and the required remedy. Items confiscated are not returned to students and are disposed of after disciplinary meetings.

G. Fire Safety Information and Education

Valdosta State University offers a variety of opportunities and resources for students to learn about the various aspects of fire prevention. Students are encouraged to educate themselves about their personal fire safety needs. In addition to the information contained in this Handbook, additional information can be found at Fire & Safety.

Fire safety discussions will be a part of meetings conducted by HRL staff, who are also considered as resources for such information. Any fire concerns should immediately be brought to their attention so proper preventative action can be taken.

H. In Case of Fire

Should a fire occur, the standard procedure for fires should be followed:

1. Notify the Fire Department by using the pull boxes. This notifies all residents of the need to evacuate the building.
2. If the fire is very small (wastebasket, smoldering matter) and you have been trained, you may try to fight it. Keep it near the doors so you can escape. Stay low, away from heat and smoke. Aim extinguisher stream at base of fire. For floor level fires, sweep from the edge of the room inward. If it is a wall fire, sweep from the bottom of the wall upward. Stay outside closets, etc. and shoot inward. Ventilate only after the fire is completely out.

3. Use good judgment. The above responsibilities should be undertaken with due attention to your own personal safety.
4. Fire Extinguisher Use. The following information clarifies extinguisher type and use should it be necessary to put out a fire:
 - a. Pressurized water extinguisher: Wood, paper, textiles, and other ordinary combustible materials.
 - b. Carbon Dioxide (CO₂) extinguisher: Flammable liquids such as oils, solvents, grease, paint, etc. Live or energized electrical or electronic equipment.
 - c. ABC (All-Purpose) Dry Chemical extinguishers: Wood, paper, plastic, combustible and flammable liquids, grease, paint and energized electrical.

Setting Fires is Prohibited.

Approval and Registration

- All Guests must be registered according to the established Guest Registration Process as outlined below.
- Resident Student Hosts must register their guest at the front desk in their building. If no front desk attendant is present, the resident should call HEART to check their guest into the building.
- As part of the Guest Registration Process, the resident will provide their information, the guest's name and form of identification, a check-out time for the guest, and verify that they understand and acknowledge their duties as a host.

Host Responsibilities

- The Host is responsible for assuring that all Guests know and adhere to VSU Policies and Procedures.
- Hosts and Guests are subject to disciplinary action for failure to comply with university policies.
- The Host may be held responsible for the actions of their Guest which may include receiving disciplinary charges when their Guest violates VSU policy and/or residence hall rules and regulations. Further, HRL staff may ask the Guest to leave the building whenever that Guest's presence is determined by the staff member to be disruptive to the residential community.

- It is the University's position that Resident Students have the right to use their assigned room for studying and sleeping. Per the agreed upon and signed roommate contract, if a conflict arises between roommates/suitemates regarding the use of the residence hall room, this established priority should be recognized by all residents. Resident Students should try to resolve roommate/suitemate conflicts stemming from Guests personally; however, mediation support will be provided by the HRL staff as needed.
- Any Guests under the age of 16 must be accompanied by a legal guardian and must not be in the halls between 8 PM- and 8 AM. No babysitting or watching of minor children is ever permitted in the residence halls at any time.

- Guests involved in an incident or policy violation may be asked to immediately leave the residence hall by Housing staff or University Police at any time and may lose visitation privileges completely.

Enforcement

- Guests will not be permitted if staff determine that their presence prohibits reasonable access to and use of the room or suite by roommates/suitemates, or the guest's presence is determined to be disruptive to other members of the residence hall.
- Each residence hall Residence Hall Director has the option to further restrict guests.

Housekeeping

Residents are expected to appropriately clean and maintain the space, including bathrooms, kitchens, and bedrooms. Lack of cleaning can result in unhealthy living conditions, odor, mildew, mold, pests, etc. Residents are expected to clean regularly and comply with all requests made to maintain a healthy environment. Failure to clean can result in fines and student conduct procedures.

Residents must deposit all garbage in the dumpsters designated for the facility. Residents should dispose of garbage daily from their living space. Garbage is not to be left outside room/suite/apartment doors, in the halls, or in breezeways. Failure to dispose of garbage properly will result in a charge of $25.00 per bag, or more for larger amounts, being applied to the student's account. Repeated actions can result in further consequences and/or student disciplinary action.

Keys/Locks

Each resident is assigned a key(s) when checking into their residence hall and is responsible for the return of the assigned key(s) upon termination of residence. Loss of key(s) will result in charges for replacement. Costs of keys vary depending on the lock style. Bedroom keys in suite-style and apartment-style rooms are $55. (Persona) Keys to enter a suite-style or apartment-style space are $250. Keys to traditional halls are $155. Key costs are to be paid through your student account.

Unauthorized duplication of keys is prohibited. Residents are prohibited from using or having unauthorized possession of key(s) or ID Cards which have not been assigned to them by the University. Having unassigned keys and/or ID Cards may result in disciplinary actions.

Lock changes will be completed if a key is lost/stolen. A new core will be put in all applicable doors and new keys will be made. VSU cares about the safety of our students. Cost should never be a reason to not report a lost or stolen key. If a student is concerned about their ability to pay for a new key, they may send an email to housing@valdosta.edu and inquire about the fee being waived. Requests will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis and will only be considered under specific circumstances. If a key is broken or bent, it will be replaced free of charge.

If a door lock is intentionally damaged beyond repair, the resident responsible will pay for its replacement. The replacement fee varies depending on the severity of the damage and the type of door. Certain situations may require student conduct procedures.

Noise

Quiet Hours are from 10pm to 8am Sunday through Thursday, and 12am to 10am Friday through Saturday. Courtesy hours are in effect 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. Quiet hours are observed 24 hours per day during the week leading up to and during final exams.

Residents are expected to abide by Quiet Hours at all times and to be respectful of their neighbors, roommates, and suitemates during these times. If a student needs assistance with noise, they can reach out to a member of the building staff.

The areas surrounding the residence halls are designated Quiet Zones from 7pm until 10am daily. During this time period, all students and guests are expected to respect the residents' right to a quiet environment.

Pets

The Office of Housing and Residence Life prohibits residents and their guests from bringing pets into the residence halls at any time. Freshwater, non-flesh-eating fish in aquariums up to 5 gallons are permitted.

Emotional Support Animals (ESAs) are permitted on a case-by-case basis and need to be approved by the ACCESS Office and the Department of Housing and Residence Life before the animal can be brought into the residence hall.

Security

Security is a community issue which depends upon the complete cooperation of all residents and their guest(s). Residents are responsible for the general security of their residential community. Acts which compromise building security are prohibited (i.e., propping open exterior doors normally locked for security purposes or opening the entrance door for others to enter the building). Entering rooms assigned to other students or non-public areas such as mechanical rooms/storage rooms or desk areas without appropriate authorization is prohibited.

All exterior doors are locked 24 hours a day/7 days a week. Persons who leave a locked exterior door open are endangering the security of residents and their property. Anyone observed or proven to have done so is subject to disciplinary action and a fine to their student account.

It is the obligation of every resident to immediately report to the Residence Life staff or University Police the presence of any nonresident not hosted by a resident and not complying with these regulations.

Smoking

Valdosta State University's Tobacco Free Campus Policy

In alignment with USG policy 9.1.7, Valdosta State University prohibits the use of tobacco products on any property owned, leased, or controlled by VSU. All faculty, staff, students, visitors, vendors, contractors, and all others are prohibited from using any tobacco products i.e., cigarettes, cigars, smokeless tobacco, snuff, pipes, electronic cigarettes, hookahs, or other similar products while on VSU property.

Violation of this policy may result in corrective action under the Student Code of Conduct or campus human resource policies. Persons refusing to comply may be asked to leave campus.

Smoking of any kind while on VSU owned property is strictly prohibited and the student will face consequences within our Conduct process.

Solicitation and Sales in Residential Facilities

Soliciting and selling for personal profit are not permitted in the residence halls or on any VSU property. Recognized Student Organizations proposing fund-raising projects must seek Residents may not allow outside salespersons to conduct any sales, demonstrations, or presentations of a product in their room or in the residence hall without written permission from the Division of Student Affairs.

Residents found to be in violation of this policy may result in corrective action under the Student Code of Conduct or the Office of Housing and Residence Life.
